[illegible]

[illegible]

A vertical diagram with a light green background. It contains five white rectangular boxes. On the left side, there are three boxes stacked vertically. On the right side, there are two boxes stacked vertically. A blue arrow points to the right from the right edge of the diagram.
